

First Draft: Syllabus 2025:

In January and February this year, the club will return to a closed status as in Previous years. Certain members, including myself, will be checking on the club, especially after bouts of bad weather. If any damage or problems are found, the Committee Member can forward them to other Committee Members via e-mail. The only nights it will be officially opened for will be the Writers' Room which is the last Wednesday of the month(weather permitting)
